Dear Josh Lederberg:

Although I will see you shortly at The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, I am writing to record both a request and a compliment. The request is for a copy of your talk given at the dinner of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching on November 14. The compliment is to tell you that I found what you had to say so stimulating to my thoughts that I cannot set aside some of what I consider to be your central points. In the event that I have misinterpreted you, or not grasped the total meaning, I would very much like to have a copy of the talk. ✓

My best regards.

Sincerely,

Margaret E. Mahoney
Vice President

Dear Margaret -

Some of this will be great for the annual Report I am drafting. What would you point to, for highlighting, or for rectification?
